Roudebush Terminal Bill Referred Back to Committee.

OPPONENTS OF THE BILL ARE UNITED.

Say It Shall Never Pass Unless the Perpetual Franchise Feature Is Eliminated—Bills Passed and Introduced.

Columbus, O., Feb. 11.—The senate Tuesday morning spent a good portion of the time discussing the Dunham bill subordinating railroad bonds to the payment of personal damage judgments, and then defeated it by a decisive vote. Senator Hosea of Cincinnati, leading the opposition, said that the bonds of railroad companies were now subordinated to labor and material claims, and that if other claims were added capital would not invest in Ohio railroad bonds.

The Roudebush terminal bill for interurbans in Cincinnati, on motion of Senator Longworth, was referred back to the committee on municipal corporations No. 1. The opponents of the bill say it shall never pass unless the provisions granting perpetual franchises and taking away the right of consent are eliminated.)

The senate by a unanimous vote confirmed the appointment of Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland to be a trustee of the Ohio State university for the term ending May 12, 1902, to succeed L. W. King, late of Newark.

A joint resolution by Senator Archler providing for an adjournment of the general assembly over Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, was adopted.

Following bills were passed in the senate: Mr. Ankeny, appropriating to Ohio university $35,000, to Miami university $25,000, and to the normal and industrial department of Wilberforce university $20,000 for the years 1902-03, and also covering existing deficiencies amounting to $18,300; by Mr. Hagenbuch, making sundry appropriations; by Mr. Clyburn, amending section 4398a, providing that veterans of the Spanish-American war as well as veterans of civil war can be charged only 50 cents for peddlers' license.

Bills introduced: By Mr. Wirt, amending section 5027 so that action against a nonresident of the state or foreign corporation may be brought in any county in which there is property or debts owing to the defendant or where such defendant may be found or where the case originated; by Mr. Harding, to appoint a commission to investigate tuberculosis in Ohio; by Mr. Yates of Pickaway, to authorize the appointment of civil service commissions in the five large cities.

In the House.

The action of the Republican caucus Monday evening, in determining to hold up Mayor Johnson's local bills for at least three weeks, has resulted in the effecting of a combination of the Democratic members to oppose any party measures any bill, whether local or general, that will in any way affect the Republican party for any good. Mayor Johnson was in the city early Tuesday morning, and has organized the Democratic members in a way that their strength may be most effectually used, and the administration tax measures as well as the canal bills and Roudebush terminals bill for Cincinnati may suffer.

The house concurred in the Bracken civil service bill for Columbus as amended and passed by the senate, and the bill is now a law.

Other bills passed were as follows: Mr. Gear, providing that where county agricultural societies refuse or neglect to give a county fair, the state funds for that purpose may be paid to a private corporation which will give the desired exhibition; Mr. Johnson, providing that for purposes of voting, the residence of inmates of the state hospital for epileptics shall be considered as the county from which the patient was committed.

The Williams resolution, providing for an election to decide an amendment to the constitution to regulate the licensing of the liquor traffic, was to have come up as a special order, but the resolution was referred to the standing committee on temperance.

Bills introduced in the house: By Mr. Guthrie, to prohibit the removal of taps or nuts from vehicles with intent to cause injury; by Mr. Guerin, to provide for the service of summons on interurban railroads where the company has no office; by Mr. Bracken, to compel farmers to keep in repair their portion of party fences unless their farm is abandoned; by Mr. Seese, to amend the law so that trustees of children's homes may be paid for their expenses while performing official duties; by Mr. Painter, amending the Love law so that students matriculated in Ohio medical colleges on or after Jan. 1, 1902, may begin the practice of medicine without examination by a state board; by Mr. Pollock of Stark, regulating proceedings in divorce cases; by Mr. Seese, to change the time for the election of members of the board of education from the second to the first Monday in April.

BRITAIN'S DENIAL.

Lord Cranborne Makes a Statement in House of Commons.

London, Feb. 11.—The under secretary for the foreign office, Lord Cranborne, replying in the house of commons to a question of Henry Norman (Liberal), who asked whether the government's attention had been called to the statement in the German press and alleged to have received of official confirmation from Berlin to the effect that Great Britain, on April 14, 1898, through her ambassador at Washington, Lord Pauncefote, proposed a fresh note in which the powers should declare that Europe did not regard the armed intervention of the United States in Cuba as justifiable, and that in consequence of Germany's refusal to accept this proposal the step was abandoned, said: "No, sir. Her late majesty's government never proposed through her majesty's ambassador or otherwise any declaration adverse to the action of the United States in Cuba. On the contrary, her late majesty's government declined to assent to any such proposal. Lord Cranborne's answer to Mr. Norman was received with rounds of applause.

John Redmond, the Irish leader, commented on Lord Cranborne's statement as follows: "That the feeling which existed in America that England did so much for the United States at the time of the war is all humbug. To my personal knowledge the majority of the members of the house of commons were strongly anti-American in those days. I have no doubt Germany has evidence to prove her assertions."

To Prohibit Polygamy.

Salt Lake, Feb. 11.—The ministerial alliance of Salt Lake has unanimously adopted the report of the committee of the organization appointed to investigate and report on the alleged practice and teaching of polygamy by the Mormons at the present time. This report is to be used as a petition for the passage of a constitutional amendment prohibiting polygamy and will be sent to the judiciary committee of congress. The report sets forth that positive evidence can be produced that polygamy is both practiced and taught by the Mormons at the present time in open defiance of the laws of the state.

Schoolboy Hangs Himself.

New York, Feb. 11.—Clare Hannum, son of W. B. Hannum, assistant paymaster of the United States navy, residing in Brooklyn, was found dead, hanging in his room at Paddle Institute at Hightstown, N. J. While the tragedy has every appearance of suicide, the general belief in the school is that the boy lost his life in an attempt to startle his roommate by a "make believe" suicide that turned into a terrible reality when it was too late for him to save himself.

Storm Off Cape Flattery.

Port Townsend, Wash., Feb. 11.—Captain Kalmstrom of the steamer Alice Gertrude, from Neah Bay, reports that the most furious storm of the season prevailed down the straits and off Cape Flattery Monday night. The wind was from the southeast and of hurricane force. Towboats with vessels in tow were compelled to seek shelter, while a large fleet of sailing vessels off Flattery awaiting a chance to get in were driven many miles to sea.

Alliance, O., Feb. 11.—The Peterson House, a two-story frame business block occupied by William A. Smith, grocery; two-story frame business block occupied by Joseph Fredericks, and the old People's theater, all on East Main street, and the old Presbyterian church building on Prospect street, occupied by a laundry, were burned. Loss about $50,000.

Big Real Estate Deal.

St. Louis, Feb. 11.—Property covering a total area of five blocks was transferred to George J. Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroad companies. The consideration was $825,000. It is rumored that Mr. Gould has made the purchase for the purpose of building an immense freight house and to extend freight yard facilities.

Portland, O., Feb. 11.—The fire which broke out in the hold of the steamship Indravell, which compelled her to return to port after starting on her voyage to Asia last Thursday, is still burning. The loss on the cargo of cotton will be heavy.

BY THEIR OWN EFFORTS

Must the Filipinos Be Elevated, Declares Senator Teller.

DON'T ACCEPT DECREE OF DESTINY.

Inhabitants of the Islands So Different From Americans That What Suits the One Will Not Suit the Other.

Washington, Feb. 11.—At 1 o'clock consideration of the Philippine tariff bill was resumed in the senate. Mr. Teller, who had the floor when the senate adjourned Monday, continued his speech. He did not think the holding of the islands by this government ever would be profitable, and he could see readily that it might prove dangerous. It was contrary to our principles to hold any people in subjection by force. Nobody, he said, was likely to question the right of the United States to hold the Philippine archipelago; no nation would raise such a question. That question might be raised in the American congress, but nowhere else. He felt that a profound mistake had been made in our early treatment of the people of the Philippines, but the question had been passed and it was now our duty to do what was right. Nobody believed, he insisted, that the United States could force upon the Filipinos our government and our civilization. Those people were of a different race from the Anglo-Saxon and such a government as would be desirable for Americans would not be desirable for the Filipinos. "In the whole history of the world," said he, "no nation has ever elevated the people of any race or nation against the protest of the people whom it was attempted to elevate; if people ever are elevated they must elevate themselves by their own efforts."

Referring to the assertion that the United States was a creature of destiny in its connection with the Philippine islands, and that this government was but carrying out the decrees of Providence among the people of the archipelago, Mr. Teller declared that he should want a plain edict from the Almighty—an edict that he would know did not come from the evil one—before he would be willing to accept the supposed decree of destiny.

"I could well imagine," said he, "that the methods we are pursuing might emanate from the evil one, but I cannot imagine that they should emanate from the great lover of the human race. I insist that in all this business, His voice has not been heard. If there is any reason why Americans should be in the Philippine islands, it cannot be found in the command of the Almighty."

Some evil influence, he said, dominated and controlled the executive department of the government, and the president's voice was no longer for peace, but for war. Had the administration declared its present policy toward the Philippines at the outset, the treaty with Spain would not have been ratified.

A Vital Question.

Detroit, Feb. 11.—The most vital question to the depositors of the wrecked City Savings bank is whether the checks which Cashier H. R. Andrews certified for F. C. Andrews when he had no funds in the bank, amounting to $62,000, and which the latter deposited among four other local banks and a trust company, are legal. If they are held to be illegal because of Cashier Andrews having certified to them without the knowledge of the directors, it is thought that the assets of the City Savings bank with what has been turned over to it by F. C. Andrews, will be sufficient to pay depositors in full.

Young Roosevelt's Condition.

Groton, Mass., Feb. 11.—Encouraging news came from the Groton school infirmary, where the son of President Roosevelt is ill with pneumonia, early Monday and brought a measure of relief to the anxiety which had grown steadily during the preceding 24 hours. At 8:30 a. m. came the word that the crisis in the left lung (the one in which it first developed) had been satisfactorily passed and that the patient showed improvement, and every one about the institution, especially President Roosevelt and the boy's mother, became more cheerful and hopeful.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 11.—The Macedonians utilized the occasion of the funeral of M. Kamteff, minister of public education, who was assassinated on Thursday last, by making a political demonstration. They gathered in considerable numbers and fired volleys from revolvers in all directions. As far as known no one was wounded, but those who took part in the procession were thrown into a panic.

80 IN IN ORDER

Aimed at British Vessels Engaged in Pelagic Sealing.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 11.—No more startling action has been taken in the much-talked-of sealing question than the following letter written by Collector J. W. Ivey of Alaska to his deputy at Unalaska: "I am advised that British vessels from Canadian ports engaged in pelagic sealing in and about Bering sea are in the habit of calling at Unalaska and Dutch Harbor for protection in bad weather and the purchase of supplies and of enjoying the privileges of the port until the season opens for them to engage in the unlawful and barbarous extermination of the fur seal herd, in violation of the laws of the United States and the international agreement with Great Britain. Until further advised on the subject, you are instructed to cease the collection of tonnage dues on this class of vessels from all countries and to refuse them the privilege of the port, water or fuel, and treat them in all respects as vessels engaged in illegal poaching.

"Any such vessels arriving at your port shall be notified to depart forthwith, and in case of refusal to obey promptly you shall seize and delay such vessels and call the United States marshal and revenue cutter to your assistance.

"Should you find from personal examination that any such vessel arrives in absolute distress you will allow her to obtain such relief only as will enable her to return to her home port."

Gas Company Must Pay.

New York, Feb. 11.—Because City Judge Bennett of Mt. Vernon refused to pay a gas bill of $1.65, which he contended he had never contracted, the gas company turned off its supply three years ago. He brought suit and the gas company carried the case to the appellate division of the supreme court, which has just handed down a decision affirming judgment for $4,300 in favor of Judge Bennett for the inconvenience to which he had been put. The damages were assessed at the rate of $5 per day.

Handsome Residence Burned.

Pt. Wayne, Ind., Feb. 11.—Brookside, the handsome country home of John H. Bass, head of the Bass car wheel foundries here and elsewhere, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour Tuesday. The fire originated from increased gas pressure in the furnaces during the night. The loss on the building is $110,000 and on contents $60,000; insurance $110,000. The Bass home was one of the handsomest residences in the state and contained many art treasures.

Fun at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 11.—Good attractions and bright weather drew larger crowds to the Mardi Gras festivities. Tuesday afternoon Emperor Felix on a gorgeous float viewed his capital city, and there were parades by the Knights of Revelry and Comic Cowboys. At night the Infant Mystics and Order of Myths gave parades and balls, which closed the festivities.

Malvar's Brother Captured.

Manilla, Feb. 11.—A brother of Malvar, the insurgent leader, has been captured.

He was chief surgeon of the Batangas insurgents. The insurgent post has been captured near Calamba, Laguna province. A number of rifles, bolos and six type writing machines, fell into the hands of the Americans. It is believed this post formed Malvar's headquarters.

Assaulted by Women.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 11.—Militiamen on guard over the fire ruins during the night heard groans in a house just within the fire lines. They ran up stairs and found Charles Handley, a telegraph lineman, with his head crushed in. He revived sufficiently to say two women had attacked him. He then relapsed into unconsciousness and probably will die.

Starving Cattle.

Denver, Feb. 11.—Humane Agent H. B. Kerr has left for a tour of the southeastern counties to investigate the reports about starving cattle. In Baca county thousands of cattle on the ranges are said to be dying from starvation and exposure. The cause of the mortality is due to a scarcity of grass and the freezing of the water holes.

Revision Work Finished.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—The most important work of the Presbyterian committee on revision has been accomplished. Several members have returned to their homes. The subject of preparing a brief statement of the confession for popular use was taken up, and the discussion of this question will continue for the next two or three days.

Adelaide, South Australia, Feb. 11.—The register estimates the exportable surplus of wheat at 146,000 tons.

SHIP BURNED AT SEA.

Brave Lifesavers Fail to Reach the Doomed Vessel.

STRUGGLE AGAINST THE ELEMENTS.

Pilot Boat Makes a Frustrous Search For the Missing Crew—Movements of Surfboats Hampered by the Floating Ice.

Cape May, N. J., Feb. 11.—The hulk of the unknown schooner which was burned at sea Monday night off this place is floating in the ice a few miles off shore.

The life savers from the stations at Cape May, Cape May Point and Two Mile Beach, tell graphic stories of their long and unavailing struggle against the elements in their efforts to lend assistance to the crew of the burning ship. The night was about the coldest of the winter and the darkness was almost impenetrable. In addition there was wind enough to make the sea choppy and therefore dangerous for small craft.

For several days past great quantities of ice has been floating out of Delaware bay, and this is packed along the shore and extending several miles out to sea. The burned schooner was first observed on fire at about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. At that time she appeared to be imbedded in the drifting ice. The three life saving crews from this vicinity were joined by the crews from two stations north of here and these men battled for hours in a fruitless endeavor to penetrate the ice and get to the assistance of the imperiled crew of the blazing ship.

Their efforts were in vain, however, as they were unable to force their frail craft through the packed ice. About midnight the brave men gave up their battle against the elements and returned to shore. Their suffering was intense.

The tugs Sommers N. Smith and Juno reported that the vessel was a two-masted schooner. Both anchors were down and the schooner was a solid mass of fire. She was burned to the water's edge and it was not possible to learn her name. The two tugs cruised in the vicinity for two hours searching for the crew, who were believed to be afloat in a small boat. Although they sent up 12 rockets their search was not successful and they returned here. The steam pilot boat Hile extended the hunt until daylight, but saw no sign of the missing crew.

Drank Lemon Extract.

Richfield, Utah, Feb. 11.—"Big John," one of the best known Indians in south central Utah, and prominent in the councils of the Utes, is dead as a result of drinking a bottle of lemon extract, which he took for a cold. Indians from the whole surrounding country are gathering at Richfield and preparations are being made to give John a funeral with all tribal ceremonies.

Three Brothers Under Arrest.

David City, Neb., Feb. 11.—George S. Gould was arrested at Bellwood and brought to this city charged with conspiracy in connection with the failure of the Platte Valley bank at Bellwood. He is the third of the Gould brothers to be placed under arrest. He was brought to this city to avoid trouble, as excitement still runs high at Bellwood.

Boxers Become Christians.

London, Feb. 11.—According to the Hongkong correspondent of the Times, the Chinese who destroyed the Fayen mission are the same men who started the anti-Christian crusade of 1900. Fearing punishment, they joined the French Catholic church, continuing under its protection their hostility to Protestantism.

Death In Unusual Way.

Findlay, O., Feb. 11.—Nathaniel Kneper, a pioneer farmer, was killed by a vicious sow. She fastened her teeth in his leg, severing an artery. The old man fell to the ground and his body was badly mangled by the animal before relatives came to his rescue. He died a few minutes after being discovered.

Santiago de Cuba, Feb. 11.—General Maximo Gomez arrived here on his way to Santo Domingo. He was given a great demonstration. A large crowd had assembled with bands of music. The municipal police and the firemen also turned out to welcome him.

The use of Paris green to destroy tobacco worms was hardly thought of ten years ago, but now some farmers are protesting against the passage of a law to put stop to its use. They claim they will have to reduce their crop if the law is passed. Better pass it, then. If the farmers would all use cobalt or some other poison on Jimson bloom and kill the tobacco fly, they would not be bothered with the tobacco worm.

In their zeal to make this Congressional district reliably Democratic for several years to follow, the Goebelites at Frankfort propose to add to it Grant County with her 574 Democratic majority. They appear to have overlooked the fact that Brown County (O) is Democratic by over 1,400 and that it is really closer to the boundaries of the present district than Grant County is. The simple fact that it is in another State oughtn't to cut any ice from a Goebelite standpoint.—Public Ledger.

Nobody but a Republican would ever have thought of such a thing as the Ledger editor suggests. If such a thing had been possible the Ohio Republicans would have taken Lewis County in long ago, had it been necessary to further their political aims. As gerrymanderers, the Republicans have long had the Democrats "faded."

It is now the opinion at Washington that Kentucky will, after all, secure the full allowance of her war claim of nearly $900,000. The conference on the urgency deficiency bill Monday reported to the House that they could not agree on this which had been inserted in the Senate because, as presented, it would open the way to further agitation of old claims from California, Nevada and other States. Congressman Heminway, of Indiana, who deserves the credit of getting the claim through then offered a substitute providing that the claim shall be adjudicated according to the method laid down in the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of New York vs. the United States. This shuts out the Western claims. The substitute was carried by a viva voce vote. The Senate then took up the substitute and passed it. The rest is a matter of auditing. Monday's action results in allowing the claims of Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan, a total of about $3,000,000.

From recent editorials it would appear that The Ledger's article on School Reform has sent the "fighting blood" coursing through the veins of THE BULLETIN. For some reason its main battery has opened on that paragraph regarding the holding of certificates by teachers. Now, we do not censure THE BULLETIN for indulging in target practice when interested parties are loading its guns at their own expense; but we do think it should have consideration enough for those who are furnishing the ammunition to accurately locate the position of the mark.—Public Ledger.

THE BULLETIN is glad to see the Ledger has modified the tone of its articles on this subject of city teachers and their qualifications for the positions they hold in our public schools. Its original article, whether so intended or not, created the impression that our schools were in the hands of a lot of incompetents, and not only discredited the city but was an unjust reflection upon the teachers as well as the members of the old boards by whom these teachers were placed in the schools.

The whole tone of the Ledger's first article tended to create the impression that Maysville's schools are not up to the standard for cities of this class, and that no progress had been made under the old boards. It was unjust to the city, the teachers and the members of the boards who have labored to build up our schools and whose success along that line will not be denied by any one at all acquainted with the condition of the schools when the majority of the present teachers were elected.

The Ledger writer places great stress upon the expression "unexpired certificates." If the teachers were qualified when they were placed in their positions and have been teaching ten months out of twelve every year since, will the Ledger say they are less qualified now than they were when first elected?

Again the Ledger writer wants to know why the rule adopted by the Board in 1887 requiring teachers to hold county certificates was repealed at the next meeting after its adoption. Our information on that point is that the rule was repealed simply because the County Superintendent was trying to exercise more authority over the city schools and teachers than the Board thought he ought to have. More than that, the Board was sustained, we understand, by the then State Superintendent.

As to the statement above in regard to "interested parties" loading the BULLETIN's guns "at their own expense," the BULLETIN will be perfectly frank. With the exception of three small paragraphs incorporated in our first article, the editor of the BULLETIN is responsible for all that has appeared on this subject. Now will the Ledger be as frank? It is the general impression that "interested parties" or an "interested party" is not only "loading its guns," but is doing the shooting. Is this true?

The protracted meeting at Elder Geo. P. Tautman's church at Portsmouth had resulted in 289 additions up to Monday.

There were seventeen at last Sunday's services. Evangelist Martin, who assisted Mr. Tautman, left Monday, but the latter will continue the services a part of this week. The church now has a membership of 1,000. Its Sunday school has an attendance of 600 or 700.

Talk's cheap, yet Taylor, of "Inglany," hasn't any of the article, it seems, only as he proclaims it from Indianapolis. Now Taylor, at Washington, while he doesn't deal in anything of this kind, can furnish you twenty pounds granulated sugar for $1 and ten pounds of Arbuckle, Lion or Levering coffee for $1 and "Daisy" New Orleans molasses at 50c. gallon.

Mrs. M. Louie Marshall, of Augusta, was in Mayville Saturday attending the meeting of the local Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Plans for efficient work were discussed—work that has yielded success in every State—will be pushed forward by the Valentine Peer Chapter. Dainty refreshments were served. One of the members read an article describing the Colonial home of her ancestor, built 232 years ago, on the seashore of one of the original thirteen States, and still in the possession of the family, and which is also filled with massive furniture of that period. A part of this building was burned by a force from a British man of war during the revolution. Reports show a wonderful increase of members of this organization throughout the land and increased work for developing patriotism, particularly with the young. The fair hostess Saturday exhibited to the chapter silver knee buckles and other heirlooms from a Maryland ancestor of the Colonial times.

Pants! Trousers! Pantaloons!

At this time of the season your coat and Vest will not show much wear, but your trousers do. Now here is where we can help each other. We have several hundred pairs of Pants, heavy and medium weight, that we want quick action on. Every pair will be sold at 25 per cent discount from the regular price. Needless to say a word about quality. You know our standard—the best only. This sale begins to-morrow and continues one week. Cash when goods are taken away.

In addition to the fall and winter weight Custom Suits we are making at $25 cash, we have added an elegant assortment of spring weight Suitings that will sell as soon as spring opens at $35 and $40, and for a short period will also make them for $25. Although every Suit we make at this price loses us some money, we make them to keep our hands employed during this hard winter weather.

Innes and his Band.

Attractions of colossal magnitude in these days are very rare, owing to the great expense for transportation. Some years ago managers of great orchestras would venture on a tour, but in later years such ventures have been practically abandoned on account of the indisposition on the part of the public to patronize the symphony orchestra liberally. But we are yet to have a great treat musically this season, it being understood that Innes and his band are to appear here with a host of eminent vocalists, who will be heard in entire scenes from grand opera.

THE MARVELOUS HEN.

Some Interesting Statistics Concerning the Poultry and Egg Industry of This Country.

The United States Census Bureau has just made up its statistics of the chicken industry in the United States. The results are so astounding that the American hen must be proclaimed the greatest of birds, now and forevermore. The chickens of the United States in the year 1900 weighed 921,715 tons. To appreciate these figures it must be known that all the big and little fighting ships in the United States navy weigh 133,644 tons. The number of the chickens was 284,000,000 and they laid 10,000,000,000 eggs. The weight of these eggs was 625,033 tons, and their bulk was forty times that of the earth. The value of these eggs would have paid every cent of the United States War Department for the year. Missouri is the first State in chickens and eggs. In the year 1900 the hens of Missouri laid more than $6,000,000 worth of eggs beyond the need of their owners, the egg crop bringing the women of Missouri as much cash as the wheat crop brought the men.

Doom of the Smoke House

The plan of coating meat with a purified oil of smoke is bound to supplant the old smoke house method.

WRIGHT'S CONDENSED SMOKE

does all that the most careful smoking can do and does it better. In addition you save time, save money, save danger of loss by fire or theft, have better flavored meat, you avoid drying out and shrinking the weight of meat, and the meat is better preserved than by the most thorough smoking. You simply do better in a minute what takes ten days or two weeks by the old method. One bottle of Wright's Condensed Smoke will smoke a barrel of meat.

SARGENT'S

Gem Food Chopper!

An up-to-date kitchen utensil—a combined luxury and necessity which saves time, lightens labor, and does better work than the old-fashioned chopping bowl and knife, the place of which it takes. It is a machine intended for daily use in the kitchen. It is not a complicated piece of mechanism; there are few parts, so that it cannot get out of order. It is easy to take apart, easy to put together, easy to adjust and can be cleaned in a jiffy. There are no knives to sharpen, the four steel cutters being made so they sharpen themselves.

There is not an article of food a house-keeper wants to chop that cannot be chopped in the Gem. It will be found useful in summer and winter, spring and autumn, in preparing the breakfast, dinner, luncheon and supper. When clamped to the kitchen table it is ready for use throughout the day or as long as it may be required. It chops raw meat, cooked meat, all kinds of vegetables and fruit, bread, crackers, cheese, nuts, and many other articles used in making substantial dishes. No housekeeper can afford to be without it.

EAST LIMESTONE, Feb. 11th.—We are having plenty of winter, but now is the time to have it.

The snow is thought to be a protection to the wheat, while some claim that the icy crust underneath the snow excludes the necessary air, to its detriment.

Julius Deelman, of Springdale, and Lou Bean, of Plumville, were guests of the Williams boys Friday.

Russell and Hanson Myers, of Rectorville, spent the past week here with relatives.

Mrs. E. M. Riley, of Cincinnati, and Miss Lula Creasy, of Price Hill, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. John Brodt, since Thursday evening, will return to their homes to-day.

Mrs. Henry Swartz, of Oak Woods, spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Nick Ring, who is getting along nicely from her late serious injury.

Howard and Charles Williams have been visiting the family of their uncle, C. C. Deelman, of Springdale, since Friday.

Mrs. John Coughlin and Mrs. Frank Gollenstein, of Limestones, were among the many callers on Mrs. Ring Monday. Mrs. Ring and Mrs. Gollenstein were old schoolmates.

John Power received a fall Wednesday, bruising his side quite severely, though he thinks not seriously. He is able to go about his home premises.

Richard C. Williams slipped and fell Wednesday while driving a team of horses with a load of ice, giving his right side quite a wrench. He gave it little thought until the following Saturday; the misery having become more severe, he had the injury examined by Dr. Samuel, who pronounced it a fractured rib and a deep internal bruise.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Beighle gave a surprise party Thursday night in honor of the nineteenth birthday of their second son, Stanley, who, after recovering from his surprise, accepted his present with dignity and was the jolliest of the merry crowd.

While our representatives are legislating against the use of Paris green on tobacco, which is all right, we suggest they pass an act to compel all farmers to use cobalt to extinguish the tobacco flies. One farmer of the county is said to have killed a bushel of flies in one season.

MAYSICK, Feb. 11th.—Our ladies and lasses are taking advantage of this sleighing weather, and the merry tinkle of bells is heard at all hours of the day.

Farmers will have little trouble in gathering brush for burning tobacco beds, as the sleet has broken branches from trees of all kinds. Fruit trees seem to have suffered most.

A C. E. social was given at the hospitable home of W. E. Pogue, Tuesday night, Feb. 4th.

The little son of Wood Browning is ill at his home near here.

Stock suffered very much during the past week. Food and water had to be carried to cattle, as it was dangerous business to attempt driving over the slippery ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cord, of Ewing, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roht, Alexander.

Protracted meeting at the Christiaan Church is being conducted by Rev. Ellis and Rev. Severeance.

M. Burke sold his crop of tobacco of about 10,000 pounds to Henry Jefferson for 64 cents per pound.

Geo. Bishop has recovered from his recent illness.

One of our respected and highly honored citizens decided to take exercise on skates the other day, to the amazement of some friends. Borrowing the skates of a young member of the party he proceeded to adjust them, all the while reflecting exploits of by-gone days. Then he resumed a standing posture and started—only to stop suddenly. The lesson not being a very severe one, he re-adjusted the skates for another trial and started, this time choosing a rather steep decline for his performance. He showed that he had chosen well and descended at the rate of a mile a minute. As he shot by the trees he yelled "whoa" at every breath, but the skates failed to "whoa," and by the time he reached the bottom of the hill he had assumed such an increase of speed that he bounded about ten feet in the air, and on return trip to earth struck the ice with such force that he decided "every star in the universe was having a shooting match." Slowly and painfully regaining his equilibrium, he unfastened the skates, returning them to his amused but sympathetic friend with the remark that "years had brought changes." He turned his attention to his sprained wrist and ceases to mention skating experiences in conversation this week.

Nature's artist can not be rivaled in the beautiful glistening picture which the country presented the past week. Every object showed the work of a "master hand" which even our most talented artists can never faithfully imitate.

The mother who would be horrified at the thought of letting her daughter wander away to a strange country without guide or counsel, yet permits her to enter that unknown land of womanhood without counsel or caution. Then, in utter ignorance, the maiden must meet physical problems whose solution will affect her whole future life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been well named "God-send to women." It corrects irregularities and imparts such vigorous vitality to the delicate womanly organs, as fits them for their important functions. Many a nervous, hysterical, peevish girl has been changed to a happy young woman after the use of "Favorite Prescription" has established the sound health of the organs peculiarly feminine.

Every woman should own a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of 25 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The same book of 1008 pages in substantial cloth for 25 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
